Re: Complaint against HCC Trustee Adriana Tamez PC#17-0154

Dear Ms. Tamez:

This letter is to inform you that the Public Corruption Division of the Harris County District Attorney's office has closed the complaint against you without charges. A thorough review of the complaint, evidence, and the law revealed that the complaint was unfounded and that you did not engage in any criminal activity. Because there is no evidence of criminal activity, the complaint will not be presented to a Grand Jury and our review of this matter is closed.

Attached you will find a copy of the letter sent to the complainant declining charges and declining presentation to a Grand Jury.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Paula Hartman", is written over a horizontal line.

Re: Complaint against HCC Trustee Adriana Tamez PC#17-0154

Dear Mr. Dolcefino,

Thank you for bringing this complaint to the attention of the Public Corruption Division of the Harris County District Attorney's Office. After consideration of the evidence and complaint presented, the Public Corruption Division has declined to file a criminal charge. Pursuant to the Texas Penal Code, there is insufficient evidence to support the elements of the offense of perjury or aggravated perjury and the complaint will not be presented to a Grand Jury.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Paula Hirtman", is written over a horizontal line.

Paula Hirtman
Assistant District Attorney
Public Corruption Division Chief
Harris County District Attorney's Office
